Franklin Horner Community Centre has served the Etobicoke Community for over 25 years - a historical landmark bonding contribution for the South Etobicoke Community.

The Centre is a non-profit, charitable organization running programs, services, and space for children, youth, older adults / seniors, sports organizations, artists, dance groups, and ethno-racial communities. We have a wide variety of meeting space, classrooms, dance rooms, art studios, gym, auditorium, party and lounge facilities available for community groups, individuals and organizations for all events.

Franklin Horner Community Centre relies on fundraising and volunteers to facilitate community programs and to maintain accessible space for the South Etobicoke Community.
